1. A minimum 30% luminance contrast between the colour of the path and the colour of the TGS must be achieved should red asphalt not be able to be used as the path surface.